

CRANFORD O. PLYLER, III

Cranford "Cran" O. Plyler III received his undergraduate and law degrees from UNC-Chapel Hill. He was then admitted to the State Bar of Texas and began his practice of law in Midland, Texas in 1982. In 1984 he moved to North Carolina and joined Louis J. Fisher Jr., former State Bar president in his law practice in High Point. In 1985, Cran founded Plyler Law Firm in Thomasville, NC. He has faithfully served the members of this community for the past 30 years from the Guilford Street location, until the firm's recent move to the new location on Holly Hill Road. Cran is a proud husband, father and most recently a doting grandfather to his precious grandson.

EDUCATION:

UNC Chapel Hill (BA) – 1979

UNC Chapel Hill (JD) – 1982

Phi Beta Kappa, UNC Chapel Hill

Order of Barristers, UNC Chapel Hill School of Law

BAR ADMISSIONS:

North Carolina – 1984

Texas – 1982 (inactive)

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS:

North Carolina State Bar

North Carolina Bar Association

Judicial District 22B Bar Association

Davidson County Bar Association

Admitted and practice before United States District Court for the Middle District of NC

Texas State Bar (inactive)

COMMUNITY ACTIVISM:

Community General Hospital Board of Trustees – 1990-1997

Davidson County Selection Committee for Morehead-Cain Scholarship – 1995-2000

Board of Trustees Westchester County Day School – 1998-2004

Memorial United Methodist Church Board of Trustees and Administrative Board

City of Thomasville Alcoholic Beverage Control Board Member– 2016-present